Bargaining unit members who are employees of the Retirement Home at the Village at St. Clair shall have no rights of any kind under this collective agreement, rather the terms and conditions of their employment shall be governed exclusively by the provisions of the Retirement Home collective agreement with the Union.

2.02 The Employer and the Union agree that there will be no discrimination, harassment, interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practised by the Employer or by the Union or by any of their representatives with respect to any employees by reason of race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, age, record of offences, marital status, same-sex partnership status, family status or disability, or any other factor not pertinent to the employment relationship, save and except those limitations as set out in the Legislation of the Province of Ontario, nor by reason of Union membership or activity, or non-membership or non activity in the Union which is hereby recognized as a voluntary act on the part of the individual concerned.

The term 'spouse' or 'partner' as used in this Agreement shall mean a person to whom an employee is married, or with whom the employee is living in a conjugal relationship of at least one year in duration, including a person of the same or opposite sex.

2.03 It is agreed that the word "employee" or "employees" whenever used in this Agreement shall be deemed to refer only to an employee or employees of the Long Term Care Home who is/are in the bargaining unit as hereinbefore defined and where the masculine pronoun is used in this Agreement it shall be deemed to include the feminine pronoun, and vice-versa, where the context so requires.

Each individual has the right to work in an atmosphere which promotes respectful interactions and is free from harassment.

Where a bargaining unit member complains of harassment by a person other than another bargaining unit member, she shall bring such complaint to the attention of the Employer and of UNIFOR. The Employer will then initiate and complete an investigation of the complaint and report the findings back to the complainant who shall be accompanied by the Union Chairperson. Should the complainant not be satisfied with the Employer's response she is entitled to file a grievance under the terms of this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

3.01 It is recognized that management of the Home and direction of the working forces are fixed exclusively in the Employer, which maintains all rights and responsibilities of management not modified by this agreement. The exercise of such rights shall include:

ARTICLE 4 – UNION REPRESENTATION

4.01 The Union shall elect or otherwise select up to five (5) members of the bargaining unit who are employees of the Long Term Care Home, who shall function as the Union Committee. One (1) of the representatives so selected or elected will be the Union Chairperson. The Union shall furnish the Employer with an update on the current Union Committee representatives and at each time a Committee member is changed, the Employer will be provided with written notice. At least one (1) representative shall be selected from the part time group of employees.

The Employer agrees to meet with up to three (3) committee members for the purposes of bargaining renewals to this agreement. At least one (1) member of the bargaining committee shall be a part time member, and one (1) shall be a full time member.

The parties shall endeavour to engage in group bargaining for all of the following Villages: Wentworth Heights, Winston Park, Glendale Crossing, Aspen Lake, and St. Clair, and Pinehaven Nursing Home. Where two (2) or more Villages bargain together the Employer agrees to meet with up to three (3) committee members from each Village for the purposes of bargaining renewals to this agreement. Where a Village has both a Long Term Care Home and a Retirement Home, there shall be no more than two (2) from each Home. The terms of reference for joint bargaining shall be negotiated and agreed upon on or before the first day of negotiations. Where a Village does not participate in group bargaining, the Employer agrees to meet with up to three (3) committee members, at least one (1) from each of the Long Term Care Home and the Retirement Home in the Village.

4.02 The Union Committee shall have the right at any time to have the assistance of a Union Representative in all labour-management relations. Such Representative shall have access to the Home's premises to discharge such duties as a representative of the Union, provided that reasonable advance notice is given to the Administrator, or designate and permission is obtained; such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.

4.03 The Union recognizes that the Union Committee members have regular duties to perform in connection with their employment and only such time as is reasonably necessary for the prompt processing of Union-Management business will be consumed by such persons during working hours. Committee members are required to obtain permission from their supervisors before leaving the work area and such permission will not be unreasonably withheld. When such Union-Management business has been completed, Committee members will advise their supervisors and return to work.

Members of the Union Committee shall receive their regular pay for regularly scheduled working hours lost due to attendance at grievance meetings with representatives of the Employer, whether on or outside the Employer's premises, for which permission has been granted.

Each member of the Union Committee shall receive his regular pay for all regularly scheduled working hours lost due to attendance at negotiating meetings with representatives of the Employer before, but not during, the Conciliation process. The Employer will provide up to two (2) employees in the bargaining unit the opportunity to reschedule their days off to a maximum of two (2) days per week. If the supervisor is unable to accommodate a change in schedule for one (1) or both of the employees, such employees will be paid 7.5 hours for the day.

4.04 The Union shall not engage in Union activities during working hours, or hold meetings at any time on the premises of the Employer without permission of the management.

4.05 Where there are matters of mutual concern and interest that would be beneficial if discussed at a Labour/Management Committee meeting during the term of this Agreement, the following shall apply:

An equal number of representatives of each party shall meet at a time and place mutually satisfactory. A request for such meeting will be made in writing at least one (1) week prior to the date proposed and accompanied by an agenda of matters proposed to be discussed. It is understood that such matters may include scheduling and the work-load assigned to Registered Staff in the bargaining unit.

A representative attending such meeting shall be paid for wages lost from regularly scheduled hours. A Union staff member may attend as representative of the Union. Meetings will be held quarterly unless agreed otherwise.

4.06 EAP Committee

The Employer and the Union share a deep concern about the problems which exist in our society today. Therefore, the Employer agrees to continue the Employee Assistance Program presently in effect. In addition, the Committee, consisting of at least two (2) but not more than three (3) representatives of the Employer and the Union will update and modify the program as required by mutual agreement.

This Committee will meet on a regular basis and will promote its functions with a view of encouraging employees to bring possible problem situations to the attention of the Committee as soon as possible.

The Employer will ensure that all members of the Committee will be given the opportunity to attend training and education courses related to the Employee Assistance Program, at no cost to the Committee members including lost time during their regular working hours where applicable.

The Committee will set up education programs for both Management and Union representatives concerning various problems in society. Any lost time incurred on courses approved by the Employer related to this program, will be paid by the Employer.

The Employer recognizes that Committee Members must share their own time for this program for this to be effective. Therefore, any lost time during regular working hours will be paid by the Employer with no loss of earnings to the Member(s).

The Committee will keep all matters brought to its attention in strict confidence.

4.07 CMI Results

Recognizing the mutual objective of quality care, the Employer agrees to meet through the Labour Management Committee with the Union as soon as practical after the receipt of their annual CMI results. The Employer agrees to provide the Union Representatives with staffing levels, staffing mix information, the impact of related payroll costs on staffing levels and a written notice of the CMI results for the facility.

The purpose of this meeting is to discuss the impact of the CMI changes on the staffing levels in the facility and the quality of care and to provide the Union with an opportunity to make representation in that regard.

The parties shall meet as necessary to discuss other changes or workload issues.

The parties may invite additional participants to attend the meeting to support constructive review and discussion.

ARTICLE 5 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- i) The parties will cooperate to schedule meetings for individual employee grievances in consideration of both the Home's operational needs and the shared value of resolving disputes promptly.

5.02 Harassment Policy in Respect of UNIFOR Members

1. Policy

Harassment is a form of discrimination that is prohibited by the Human Rights Code and is a contravention of the Code. Harassment, including sexual harassment, is offensive, degrading and threatening.

The Employer and UNIFOR do not tolerate any form of harassment. This provision applies to circumstances in which one bargaining unit member alleges harassment by another bargaining unit member.

2. What is Harassment?

For the purpose of this joint policy, harassment is restricted to any grounds prohibited by the Human Rights Code.

Harassment is defined as a course of vexatious comment or conduct that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome. Every person who is a staff member has the right to freedom from harassment in the workplace by the Employer or any other person because of race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, religion, creed, sex, age, record of offence, marital status, family status, handicap or sexual orientation.

3. Responsibilities

In order to provide for and maintain an environment free of harassment, the Employer and UNIFOR will ensure that:

- All staff members, volunteers and persons with practising privileges are informed that harassment, including sexual harassment, in the workplace is an offence under the law.
- The Employer and UNIFOR will jointly investigate all complaints.
- The Employer is available to discuss questions, concerns or complaints related to harassment with the complainant and UNIFOR.
- All staff members have the right to proceed under this policy where applicable without reprisal or threat for having made a complaint in good faith. Harassment may occur as a result of one incident or a series of incidents. The unwelcome comment or conduct does not have to be directed at a specific person for harassment to occur.

The following examples could be considered as harassment but are not meant to cover all potential incidents:

- name calling
- racial slurs or jokes
- mimicking a person's accent or mannerisms
- offensive posters or pictures on paper
- repeated sexual remarks
- physical contact that could be perceived as degrading
- sexual flirtation, advances, propositions
- leering
- comments about a person's sex life
- innuendo, gestures or taunting about a person's body, disability, attire or gender

4. Procedure

The Employer and UNIFOR are responsible for:

- advising a complainant when this policy applies;
- providing education regarding harassment;
- clarifying options available;
- identifying and assisting complainants in obtaining counselling;
- facilitating in the resolution process and
- informing the complainant of their right to file a formal complaint with the Human Rights Commission, appropriate professional governing bodies, union or charges under the criminal Code.

In addition, the Employer and UNIFOR will inform the complainant that they have the right to withdraw from any further action in connection with the complaint at any stage. All complaints will be held in strict confidence.

1. All complaints of harassment (or retaliation for having brought forward a complaint of harassment) are to be brought to the attention of the Employer and UNIFOR. They may be either verbal or in written form.
2. The Employer and UNIFOR will document the complaint and the individual will be informed of his/her rights.

3. The Employer will bring the matter to the attention of the person responsible for the conduct of harassment and attempt to resolve the matter informally.
4. If the harassment continues to occur, the respondent will be informed in writing of the allegations and a copy of the policy will be included.
5. The respondent and/or delegate will be given an opportunity to respond to the allegations either orally or in writing.
6. An internal resolution will be attempted between the complainant and respondent by the Employer and UNIFOR.
7. Where the joint investigation results in a finding that the complaint of harassment is substantiated, the outcome of the investigation and any disciplinary action will be recorded in the personnel file of the respondent.
8. The complainant will be informed of the outcome of the joint investigation undertaken by the Employer and UNIFOR.
9. At the conclusion of this step, the complaint, if unresolved, will be inserted into Step 2 of the grievance procedure for resolution.
10. In the event that the complaint is not resolved by the parties at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, it may be appealed to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Collective Agreement.
11. The parties agree that this procedure is an alternative complaint procedure and, as such, complaints should not be pursued through both the grievance procedure and the Human Rights complaint procedure.

5.03 Women's Advocate

The parties recognize that female employees may sometimes need to discuss with another woman matters such as violence or abuse at home or workplace harassment. They may also need to find out about specialized resources in the community with these and other issues.

For this reason the parties agree to recognize the role of a women's advocate in the workplace. The Women's Advocate will be determined by the Union from amongst the female bargaining unit employees. The Advocate will make themselves available to female employees as needed to discuss problems with them and access local services and supports as required.

The name of the Advocate will be posted on the union bulletin board. The employer agrees to provide access to a private office so that confidentiality can be maintained when a female employee is meeting with the Women's Advocate.

ARTICLE 6 – ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

6.01 Either party may refer a matter to arbitration within twenty-eight (28) calendar days of the response given at the final step of the grievance procedure. The parties agree to use a sole arbitrator in place of a Board of Arbitration selected from the arbitrators listed below:

W. Rayner
C. White
R. Levinson
M. Wilson

6.02 Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement, including a question as to whether a matter is arbitrable or where an allegation is made that this Agreement has been violated, either party, after exhausting the grievance procedure, may submit the matter to arbitration as provided, above.

Proceedings before an arbitrator shall be expedited by the parties. The arbitrator shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and shall issue a decision and the decision is final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it.

6.03 The fee of such arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties.

6.04 At any stage of the arbitration procedure the parties may have the assistance of the employee or employees concerned and all reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the parties and the Arbitrator to have access to any part of the Home to view any working condition which may be relevant to the resolution of the grievance at a reasonable time and so as not to interfere with the normal function of the Home.

- 6.05 The Arbitrator shall have no power to alter, add to, subtract from, modify or amend this Agreement in order give any decision inconsistent with it.
- 6.06 No person shall be appointed as an arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.
- 6.07 Where there is mutual agreement the parties may use the process of Mediation/Arbitration.
- 6.08 If a matter has been referred to arbitration, and after a period of six (6) months no hearing date has been scheduled, the grievance will be deemed to be withdrawn, unless mutually agreed otherwise.

ARTICLE 7 – GROUP AND POLICY GRIEVANCES.

7.01 Group Grievance

The grievance procedure as outlined above shall apply equally to a grievance lodged by a group of employees, provided such grievance is submitted within seven (7) calendar days of the incident giving rise to it. Such grievance will be presented in writing to the Administrator at step 2 of the grievance procedure.

7.02 Policy Grievance

A policy grievance shall be defined as a grievance of general application by either the Employer or the Union affecting either of the parties directly arising out of the interpretation or administration of the Collective Agreement. Such grievance will be submitted at the final step of the grievance procedure, within seven (7) calendar days after the incident giving rise to the grievance.

ARTICLE 8 – DISCHARGE AND SUSPENSION

- 8.01 An employee may only be discharged or suspended for just cause, except that an employee who has not completed the probationary period as established in Article 10 may be terminated by the Employer in accordance with Article 3.01 (e).

In any case where an employee may be discharged or suspended, the Employer will notify the employee concerned that an investigation is underway within fourteen (14) days of the date on which the employer first becomes aware of the event(s) on which the discipline may be based. Failure to meet this provision shall not however, void any discipline which may follow provided the Employer has conducted its investigation with diligence.

- 8.02 It is agreed that the Chairperson of the Union Committee or a Committee member shall be informed of the discharge of any employee in the bargaining unit as soon as possible.
- 8.03 An employee shall, upon written request, have an opportunity to view her personal file in the presence of her supervisor or designate. The information the employee may review will be:
1. Application form.
 2. Written warnings and evaluations.
 3. Incident reports.
 4. Medical file.

8.04 Administration of Discipline

Where an employee is called to a meeting with the Employer that may lead to discipline of any kind which is to be placed in the employee's file, the employee shall have representation from a Committee Member at such meeting with the Employer. In the event of a suspension or discharge the employee shall be permitted an interview with a Committee Member prior to leaving the work place, if such a Committee Member is available.

8.05 Letters of Reprimand

Letters of reprimand and/or any disciplinary sanction will be removed from the employee's record and not relied upon by the Employer to advance a disciplinary sanction against an employee in a progressive disciplinary manner after a period of eighteen (18) months. Disciplinary sanctions for matters involving a resident or family member shall remain on file for 36 months after the date of the last formal disciplinary action on file which involved a resident or family member.

8.06 Staff and Resident Abuse

Staff Abuse

The parties agree that abuse of staff, including threatening behavior, must be addressed.

There will be no reprisal for the good faith lodging of a complaint by a staff member about such abuse or the participation by a staff member in an investigation with respect to such complaint.

Abuse or threatening behaviour by residents may include, but is not limited to physical abuse, psychological abuse, emotional abuse and sexual abuse.

The parties agree that the Long Term Care Home environment houses residents who, through no fault of their own, may exhibit aggressively abusive behaviour and actions that may be unwelcome to staff. In order to balance those behaviours to the benefit of both the residents and the staff, the parties agree to the following:

The parties agree that if incidents involving aggressive resident's action occur, such action will be recorded and reviewed at the Occupational Health and Safety Committee. Reasonable steps within the control of the Employer will follow to address the legitimate health and safety concerns in that forum. The parties further agree that suitable subjects at the Joint Labour Management Committee will include aggressive residents.

If an employee is faced with abuse from a resident it may be necessary for the employee to leave the threatening situation and immediately notify his or her Supervisor who will assess the situation and give further direction.

It is agreed that no employee will be required to work one-on-one in a situation in which the actions of the resident at that time directly put the employee at risk of physical harm, until a satisfactory resolution has been reached.

Incidents of abusive and threatening behaviour by a resident will be documented on the resident's chart with a view to examine and modify care approaches and interventions by staff.

The parties understand that the Employer is required to make every effort to provide appropriate care to residents who are abusive before it makes any representation for psychiatric intervention.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the employee is required to consider the safety of the resident.

Resident Abuse

The parties agree that the abuse of residents will not be tolerated, and that residents have a right to live in an environment that is free from abuse. For this reason, the parties agree to cooperate fully with one another in investigating any reported cases of abuse. If an employee sees or becomes aware of an action which may appear to be abusive, they have a legal and moral obligation to report that action to their immediate supervisor. Where an employee is required to leave the work place while an investigation is carried out in response to a complaint of abuse, such time will be with pay for all scheduled hours lost as a result of the absence. The Employer agrees that when an employee is sent home with pay pending investigation, and a Union Committee person is on site, the Union Committee person will be present at the time the employee is sent home.

All investigations will be completed as quickly as possible. Furthermore, the parties will work to ensure there is no retribution when an employee reports the alleged abuse of a resident by another employee. Both the employer and the Union will support such employee in bringing forth any good faith allegations of resident abuse. For clarity all employees should understand and accept that any person who is accused of abuse has a right to answer the allegations, and to explain their actions.

The Union further agrees to work with the Employer to promote an abuse free environment for all residents.

8.07 Violence against Women

The parties hereby recognise and share the concern that women uniquely face situations of violence or abuse in their personal lives that may affect their attendance or performance at work. A woman who is in an abusive or violent personal or domestic situation will not be subjected to discipline without giving full consideration to the facts in the case of each individual and the circumstances surrounding the incident otherwise supportive of discipline. This statement of intent is subject to a standard of good faith on the part of the Employer, the Union and the affected employees and will not be utilized by the Union or the employees to subvert the application of otherwise appropriate disciplinary measures.

ARTICLE 9 – UNION SECURITY

9.01 All employees covered by this Agreement shall have Union dues deducted monthly as a condition of employment.

9.02 The Employer agrees to acquaint new employees with the fact that a Collective Agreement is in effect and with the conditions of employment set out in the articles dealing with Union Security and Dues Check-off. The employee will be introduced to the Union Chairperson or designate by a representative of the Employer.

It is mutually agreed that arrangements will be made for a Union representative to interview each newly hired employee once during the first thirty (30) days of her employment for the purpose of informing such employee of the existence of the Union in the facility. The Employer shall advise the Union monthly as to the names of the persons to be interviewed. The interview will not exceed fifteen (15) minutes.

9.03 The Employer agrees that it will deduct union dues by deduction from each pay from the earnings of each employee coming within the scope of the bargaining unit defined in the Recognition clause of this agreement, in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of UNIFOR-Canada, in the manner and amounts provided as notified in writing by the Union. These dues shall be remitted forthwith in accordance with the terms set out in writing by the Union.

A list of employees for and on whose behalf such deductions have been made shall also be forwarded to UNIFOR-Canada at the same address and at the same time.

The names of those employees who have not remitted dues in a month as a result of some form of absence where Union dues cannot be deducted by the Employer, (e.g. Weekly Indemnity and WSIB) will be provided.

The Union agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any claim or liability arising out of the application of this agreement except for any claim or liability arising out of an error committed by the Employer

9.04 New employees shall have deductions for Union dues made from the first pay of the month following three (3) weeks employment.

9.05 T-4 slips issued annually to employees shall show deductions made for Union dues.

9.06 The Employer will provide on a quarterly basis a list of names, addresses, telephone numbers and classifications of all employees, to the Union Chairperson and the Local Union.

9.07 UNIFOR Paid Education Leave (PEL)

The Employer agrees to pay into a special fund, two cents ($0.02) per hour per employee for all compensated hours for the purpose of providing paid education leave. Such leave will be for upgrading the employee's skills in all aspects of trade union functions. Such monies to be paid on a quarterly basis into a trust fund established by the National Union, UNIFOR, effective from date of ratification, and sent by the Employer to the following address: UNIFOR, 205 Placer Court, Toronto, Ontario M2H 3H9, Attention: PEL Cheques payable to UNIFOR Leadership Training Fund.

The Employer further agrees that members of the bargaining unit selected by the Union to attend such courses will be granted a leave of absence without pay for twenty (20) days class time, plus travel time where necessary. Employees on such leave of absence will continue to accrue seniority and benefits during such leave. The Union will reimburse the Employer for the cost of such benefits to the Employer during the period of the leave. The leaves will be granted subject only if they do not unduly interfere with the operation of the workplace.

ARTICLE 10 – SENIORITY

10.01 Seniority is defined as the length of continuous service from the date the employee was last hired by the Employer. A new full-time employee will be considered on probation until after she has completed forty-five (45) days of work within any twelve (12) calendar months. A new part-time employee will be considered on probation until after she has completed three hundred and thirty seven and one half (337 ½) hours of work within any twelve (12) calendar months. Upon completion of such probationary period, the employee's name will be placed on the appropriate seniority list with seniority dating from the date the employee was hired by the Employer.

An employee's seniority shall include only the service as an employee of the Long Term Care Home. No service accumulated in the Retirement Home shall be considered in calculating or exercising seniority under this collective agreement.

10.02 The Employer will post semi-annually a seniority list, including names, seniority and dates of hire, and supply the Chairperson of the Union Committee with a copy, as well as forwarding a copy to the Local Union office. Such list will be revised effective April 1st, and October 1st. Any questions regarding the seniority list must be submitted in writing to the Employer within thirty (30) days following the posting of the list, failing which the list shall be deemed to be correct for all purposes.

10.03 In the event that a part-time employee should become a full-time employee, such employee's name will be removed from the part-time employees' seniority list. Such employee shall be credited with all accrued seniority to the date of her becoming a full-time employee based on 1800 hours being equal to one (1) year seniority.

Such employee will be given a seniority date on the full-time employees' seniority list, which will reflect the amount of her full-time seniority determined in accordance with the foregoing paragraph.

In the event that a full-time employee should become a part time employee such employee's name will be removed from the full time employee's seniority list. Such employee will be credited with all accrued seniority to the date of her becoming a part-time employee based on one (1) years seniority equals 1800 hours.

Such employee will be given a seniority date on the part time employee's seniority list, which will reflect the amount of her part time seniority determined in accordance with the foregoing paragraph.

10.04 In the event of a proposed layoff of a permanent or long-term nature, the Home will provide the Union with at least 6 weeks notice. This notice is not in addition to required notice for individual employees.

In the event of a layoff of a permanent or long-term nature, the Home will provide affected employees with notice in accordance with the Employment Standards Act. However, the Employment Standards Act will be deemed to be amended to provide notice to the affected employee as follows:

if her service is greater than 9 years – 9 weeks notice

if her service is greater than 10 years – 10 weeks notice

if her service is greater than 11 years – 11 weeks notice

if her service is greater than 12 years – 12 weeks notice

Layoff Procedure

- a) In the event of layoff, the Employer shall lay off employees in the reverse order of their seniority within their classification, provided that there remain on the job employees who have the ability and qualifications to perform the work.

b) An employee who is subject to layoff shall have the right to either:

- i. accept the layoff; or
- ii. displace an employee who has lesser seniority and who is the least senior employee in a lower or identical paying classification in the Home if the employee originally subject to layoff is qualified for and can perform the duties of the lower or identical paying classification without training other than orientation. Such employee so displaced shall be laid off.
- iii. where there are no employees with lessor seniority in lower or identical paying classifications, a laid off employee will have the right to displace an employee with lesser seniority, who is the least senior employee in another classification provided she is qualified for and can perform the duties without training other than orientation. Such employee so displaced shall be laid off.

The decision of the employee to choose (i), (ii) or (iii) above shall be given in writing to the Administrator within one calendar week following the notification of layoff. Employees failing to do so will be deemed to have accepted the layoff.

Recall Rights

- c) An employee shall have the opportunity of recall from a layoff to an available opening, in order of seniority, provided he has the ability and qualifications to perform the work. In determining the ability and qualifications of an employee to perform the work for the purpose of the paragraph above, the Employer shall not act in an arbitrary manner.
- d) An employee recalled to work in a different classification from which she was laid off shall have the privilege of returning to the position she held prior to the layoff should it become vacant within 6 months of being recalled provided she has maintained the necessary qualifications to do the work in that classification.

- e) No new employees shall be hired until all those laid off have been given an opportunity to return to work and have failed to do so in accordance with the loss of seniority provision, or have been found unable to perform the work available.
- f) It is the sole responsibility of the employee who has been laid off to notify the Employer of his intention to return to work within five (5) calendar days after being notified to do so by registered mail, addressed to the last address on record with the Employer (which notification shall be deemed to have been received on the second day following the date of mailing) and to return to work within fourteen (14) calendar days after being notified. The notification shall state the job to which the employee is eligible to be recalled and the date and time at which the employee shall report for work. The employee is solely responsible for his proper address being on record with the Employer.
- g) Employees on layoff or notice of layoff shall be given preference for temporary vacancies which are expected to exceed twenty (20) days of work. An employee who has been recalled to such temporary vacancy shall not be required to accept such recall and may instead remain on layoff. This provision supersedes the job posting provision.
- h) The job posting provisions as set out in this Agreement will continue to apply. When a laid off employee bids for and is successful in obtaining a posted position, she shall have no further recall rights with regard to recall upon successful completion of her trial period.
- i) A laid off employee shall retain the rights of recall for a period of thirty-six (36) months. Employees on layoff are responsible for maintaining the necessary qualifications for performing the work of the classification from which they were laid off. The Employer will make reasonable attempts to advise laid off employees of in-service and training programs that are necessary in order for the employee to maintain her qualification for recall to her position, it being understood that any cost related to the in-service or training will be borne by the employee. The Employer will provide a receipt for such training.

Note:

For purposes of layoff and recall, full-time and part-time seniority will be deemed to be merged. It is understood and agreed that if a part-time employee bumps a full-time employee as part of the above-noted procedure, the part-time employee is accepting the full-time position only.

It is understood and agreed that if a full-time employee bumps a part-time employee as part of the above-noted procedure, the full-time employee is accepting the part-time position only.

For these purposes, 1 year full-time seniority = 1800 hours part-time seniority.

10.05 Grievances concerning layoffs and recalls shall be initiated at the final step of the grievance procedure.

10.06 Seniority shall be lost and the employee shall be deemed to have resigned for the following reasons:

- a) voluntarily resigns;
- b) discharge for cause not reversed throughout the grievance of arbitration procedure;
- c) an employee fails to notify the Employer of her intention to return to work within seven (7) calendar days following a recall from layoff and after being notified by registered mail or telephone to do so;
- d) an employee fails to return to work on the date mutually agreed upon in sub-article (c) above without sufficient cause;
- e) an employee is absent from work for three (3) working days without sufficient cause;
- f) an employee overstays a permitted leave of absence unless extended by mutual consent. An employee who is on leave of absence will not engage in gainful employment on such leave and if an employee does engage in gainful employment while on such leave, she will forfeit all seniority rights and privileges contained in this Agreement unless otherwise agreed by the Union and the Employer;

- g) an employee has been laid off continuously for thirty-six (36) months.
- h) is absent and not paid by the employer for a period in excess of thirty-six (36) months, and there is no reasonable likelihood the employee will return to work within the foreseeable future.

This provision shall be interpreted consistent with the Human Rights Code.

10.07 Any notice pertinent to the employment of any employee under this Agreement shall be given personally in writing or prepaid registered mail addressed to the employee at her last address shown on the records of the Employer. A copy of such notice shall be mailed to the Union office on the same day. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to keep the Employer and the Union informed of any changes in address and any other relevant changes.

10.08 Retirement

Employees who have reached the age of sixty-five (65) may choose to retire in accordance with the normal retirement age. If they continue to work, it will be subject to annual review by the Employer to determine whether they are capable of performing assigned duties. If such employee is capable of performing her assigned duties in the opinion of the Employer, employment shall continue until such time that the employee becomes incapable.

ARTICLE 11 – HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

11.01 The normal full-time work day shall consist of between six and one quarter (6 ¼) hours and seven and one half (7 ½) hours exclusive of a half (1/2) hour unpaid lunch. Nothing in this Article shall be understood to be a guarantee of any hours of work as set out herein.

11.02 The regular full-time work period will consist of between sixty two and one half (62 ½) and seventy-five (75) hours which may be averaged over a two (2) week period. It is understood that employees may be required to work up to and including five (5) consecutive days.

11.03 Overtime at the rate of one and one-half (1 ½) the employee's regular rate of pay is time worked in excess of seven and one-half (7 ½) hours per day or seventy-five (75) hours in a two (2) week period. Overtime can only be worked upon the approval of the Administrator or her designate.

11.04 Each eight (8) hour shift will include two (2) fifteen (15) minute paid rest periods, which may be taken as one (1) thirty (30) minute coffee break if mutually agreed.

11.05 If an employee is called-back to work after completing a regular shift of work, within the next 8 hour shift, after leaving the Home premises the employee shall be guaranteed a minimum of two and one-half (2 ½) hours' pay at one and one-half (1 ½) the regular rate of pay for each such call-back.

11.06 In the event employees of their own accord wish to change shifts with one another, such a change requires the approval in writing of the Employer acting in a reasonable manner on the understanding that such exchange shall not result in any premium pay by the Home.

11.07 When an employee reports for work at her assigned starting time without being notified two (2) hours in advance by the Home not to report to work at said time, then the employee shall receive work or pay in lieu of work, for four (4) hours during that day.

11.08 Daylight Savings/Standard Time changes

On the night shift where the changeovers occur between Daylight Savings and Standard Time, an employee shall be paid for the hours worked on the regular shift (presently 6.5 hours or 8.5 hours) at straight time.

11.09 There shall normally be a minimum of fifteen (15) hours off between scheduled shifts of work.

11.10 Employees shall not be required to take time off in lieu of overtime pay, unless by mutual arrangement between the Employer and the employee(s).

11.11 The Employer will endeavour to schedule every second (2nd) weekend off and no employee will be scheduled to work more than five (5) consecutive days, unless mutually agreed upon.

11.12 Four (4) week schedules will be posted at least two (2) weeks in advance. Where the Employer intends to amend a posted schedule, it shall inform the affected employees in advance of such change to the schedule, and as soon as reasonably possible. The Employer agrees to give reasonable consideration and assistance to employees requesting shift and or schedule changes.

11.13 There shall be no pyramiding of overtime or any premium rates in any circumstances.

11.14 The Employer will not split shifts absent agreement of the employee and the Union. Such agreement will not be unreasonably withheld.

11.15 If an employee works a shift of at least three and three quarter (3 ³/₄) hours she shall be entitled to a paid break of fifteen (15) minutes.

11.16 Call In

The parties agree to the following procedure for call-in.

- 1. Employees will complete and submit their availability for call-ins and it will remain in effect until the employee notifies the Employer of a change. In the event employees do not provide any availability, they will not be called upon for shifts above and beyond their job posting. Employees can submit changes to availability two (2) weeks before the posting of the current schedule.

- 2. The call-in list will be distributed to the persons responsible for call-ins required when employees cannot report for scheduled shifts.

3. The call-in list will be organized in order of decreasing seniority, with the most senior employee at the top of the list.
4. Call-ins will be done on a rotating seniority basis.
5. Where a call-in is required, calls will commence with the most senior eligible person and continue until the shift is filled. When the next call-in is required the supervisor will commence calling the next eligible person on the list immediately below the person who was last assigned and continue until the shift is filled and so on.
6. A refusal for a call-in shall be deemed to be a worked call-in for the purposes of determining who has been called on the list.

After the shift is filled all messages left and not responded to will likewise be refusals.

7. Where a call is made and a message is left (either verbal or numeric) the supervisor will continue to try to fill the shift. Should a person with whom a message was left respond before the shift has been filled, she shall be given the call-in and the next call-in will commence with the person immediately below her on the call-in list.
8. Employees will not be called if, by working the shift, they will be entitled to overtime, unless approved by the supervisor.
9. For the purpose of this provision, scheduling regulations that would apply to scheduled shifts will not apply to call-in shifts and these may be offered to eligible employees regardless of a conflict with such scheduling regulations.
10. This protocol will be trialed for a period of one (1) year. The parties may discuss the protocol at any time during the trial period and will review the protocol to determine what, if any, amendments need be made during or at the expiry of the trial period. Thereafter, the parties agree to review the protocol as may be necessary or requested by either party. All amendments will be by mutual agreement.

12. A call-in record shall be kept in an appropriate location. The Union committee will have access to the document in the presence of a supervisor.

Shift Substitution

The Employer agrees that if an 8 hour shift comes available and the next part-time employee on the call-in rotation is currently scheduled to work a 3 hour shift, the employee will be offered the opportunity to work the 8 hour shift and, if the employee accepts the 8 hour shift, the employer will call in the next employee on the rotation for the 3 hour shift.

11.17 Employees required for reporting purposes shall remain at work for a period of up to 15 minutes beyond the end of their shift which shall be unpaid. Should the reporting time extend beyond 15 minutes, however, the entire period shall be paid at straight time.

11.18 Casual employees

A casual part-time employee means an employee who is called to work on a call in basis, but who does not work a regular schedule, or does so only for a specified period. Such employee has the option of refusing work when it is made available to her, however, such employee shall work at least one (1) shift in a six (6) week period including one (1) weekend. An employee who fails to meet this requirement shall be removed from the seniority list unless there is a bona fide reason why the requirement cannot be met. Employees working as casual part-time in a job class shall not be called under Article 11.16 until all working as regular full-time and regular-part time employees and who are on the call-in list have been called.

11.19 Employee requests for time off must be submitted in writing, on a form provided by the Employer two (2) weeks prior to the posted schedule. The Employer will consider requests in the order they were submitted and will consider such requests subject to Operational Requirements and shall not unreasonably deny such requests. In cases of other leave requests under this article, such leaves shall be granted in accordance with the Emergency Leave Provisions of the Employment Standards Act, 2000.

ARTICLE 12 – PAID HOLIDAYS

12.01 Employees will be entitled to the following holidays:

New Years Day	Civic Holiday	Boxing Day
Family Day	Labour Day
Good Friday	Thanksgiving Day
Victoria Day	Remembrance Day
Canada Day	Christmas Day

If an additional statutory holiday is proclaimed it shall be deemed to replace one of the holidays listed above so that the Employer's obligation totals eleven (11) holidays.

12.02 The Employment Standards Act provisions will determine the qualifiers for holiday pay and the amount of the holiday pay.

12.03 Where an employee is scheduled to work on a holiday, she shall be paid at the rate of one and one half (1 ½) times her regular straight time hourly rate for all hours worked, in addition to her holiday pay entitlement if she qualifies for such pay as outlined in Article 12.02. At the employee's option, and provided the Employer receives at least four weeks written notice in advance of the holiday, she shall be paid at the rate of one and one half (1 ½) her regular straight time hourly rate for all hours worked, and may receive an alternate day off with pay, provided she qualifies under this article, at a mutually agreeable time within the following sixty (60) calendar days.

If the employee wishes to extend this time period, the request must be made to the Administrator. Requests will not be unreasonably withheld.

12.04 An employee who is scheduled to work on a recognized holiday, and who fails to do so, shall lose her entitlement for the holiday pay, except where such absence is due to illness, injury or other reasonable excuse. Employees who receive holiday pay under this article shall not receive additional pay (e.g. sick leave).

12.05 If one of the above named holidays occurs on an employee's regular day off, and the employee qualifies under 12.02, the employee will be paid her holiday pay, and at her option may receive an alternate day off without pay, at a mutually agreeable time within the following sixty (60) calendar days.

If the employee wishes to extend this time period, the request must be made to the Administrator. Requests will not be unreasonably withheld.

12.06 Where a paid holiday occurs during an absence due to illness/injury an employee, if eligible, shall receive sick pay or weekly indemnity benefits for the paid holiday. She shall not receive holiday pay. If, however, her weekly indemnity is less than one hundred percent (100%) of the straight time wages she would have earned for the day, then she shall have weekly indemnity topped up to one hundred percent (100%) from any holiday pay which she would otherwise have been entitled to receive for the day. If an employee is not eligible for sick pay or weekly indemnity for such an absence, then she shall receive holiday pay if she is otherwise eligible.

12.07 Christmas & New Year time off

“The normal working schedule will be suspended from December 15 to approximately January 15 so that employees will have either Christmas Day or New Year’s Day off. Employees may be required to alternate from year to year working Christmas Day or New Year’s Day. The mechanics of this entitlement will be developed on a home by home basis.

The Employer agrees to meet with the union committee of each home within forty-five (45) days of ratification, or as may otherwise be agreed, to formalize the implementation of this provision. The parties will draft a protocol which will provide the method for scheduling in the Christmas & New Year’s period.”

13.02 The time of vacation for each employee each year will be mutually arranged between the employee and the Employer, provided however that if there is a dispute over a respective vacation date between the employees, seniority of an employee shall be the governing factor.

13.03 An employee leaving the employ of the Employer for any reason at any time in her vacation year before she has had her vacation shall be entitled to her percentage of wages as provided in this Article in lieu of such vacation.

13.04 Employees shall indicate their vacation preference by March 15th. Once the employee's vacation period is approved it shall not be changed without the consent of the employee and the Employer. The listing of vacation periods shall be posted by April 15th. Vacation requests made other than by March 15th will be considered on a "first come first served basis". 13.09 Vacations should start on a Monday unless otherwise requested by the employee.

13.10 Bereavement During Vacation

When an employee's scheduled vacation is interrupted due to a death in the employee's family, the period of bereavement leave as set out in Article 15.02 shall apply and the employee may take the leave as an extension to vacation or at another time, in either case with the prior agreement of the Employer. Pay for the period of bereavement will be the amount that the employee would have received as if she had not been on vacation at the time of the death and it will be paid at the time the leave is taken.

ARTICLE 14 – SICK LEAVE

14.01 Pay for sick leave is for the sole and only purpose of protecting employees against loss of income when they are legitimately ill and will be granted to employees on the following basis providing sick leave credits are available:

Full-time

- a) Employees who have completed the probationary period shall be credited with sick credits equivalent to that which they would have accumulated since their last date of hire and shall continue to accumulate sick leave credits at the rate of seven and one half (7 ½) hours for each one hundred sixty-two and one half (162 ½) hours of service to a maximum of seventy-five (75) hours.

Providing credits are available, employees will be eligible to claim seventy percent (70%) of straight time wages with each credit for scheduled lost time due to illness for the first week of any one illness.

An employee shall apply for E.I. sick leave benefits for weeks two (2) through sixteen (16) of any legitimate illness or injury. The Employer will top-up these benefits to seventy percent (70%) of straight time wages. In the event the employee does not qualify for E.I. sick leave benefits by reason of lack of adequate contributions, she shall receive seventy percent (70%) of her straight time wages for weeks two (2) through sixteen (16) of any legitimate illness or injury but shall not be eligible for benefits beyond sixteen (16) weeks, which are described below.

The Employer will pay one hundred percent (100%) of the billed premium for full-time employees for a weekly indemnity plan covering legitimate personal illness and injury for week eighteen (18) through thirty (30) of such illness or injury. Payment under weekly indemnity will be seventy percent (70%) of scheduled straight time wages lost.

In a case where an employee has applied for and is waiting to receive E.I. benefits under this clause and payment is delayed, the employee may apply to the Employer for an advance. In such a case, the employee must present the Employer with proof of eligibility for the benefit to the Employer's satisfaction. If approved, the Employer will advance a sum equal to two (2) weeks of E.I. benefits in exchange for a written undertaking to repay the Employer at the earliest possible opportunity.

Note: The top-up scheme is subject to prior approval by the E.I. authorities and failing such approval, the Employer shall not be liable for additional coverage than contemplated by this proposal.

- b) Where an employee's scheduled vacation is interrupted due to a serious illness requiring the employee to be an in-patient in a hospital, the period of such hospitalization shall be considered sick leave provided the employee provides satisfactory documentation of illness and the hospitalization. The portion of the employee's vacation if deemed to be sick leave under the above provision will not be counted against the employee's vacation credits.
- c) The employees understand that they will provide the most notice possible of absence due to personal illness, particularly for the afternoon or the evening shift.

Part-time

- a) Employees who have completed the probationary period shall be credited with sick credits equivalent to that which they would have accumulated since their last date of hire and shall continue to accumulate sick leave credits at the rate of seven and one half (7 ½) hours for each one hundred sixty-two and one half (162 ½) hours of service to a maximum of seventy-five (75) hours.

Providing credits are available, employees will be eligible to claim seventy percent (70%) of straight time wages with each credit for scheduled lost time due to illness for the first week of any one illness.

An employee shall apply for E.I. sick leave benefits for weeks two (2) through sixteen (16) of any legitimate illness or injury. The Employer will top-up these benefits to seventy percent (70%) of straight time wages. In the event the employee does not qualify for E.I. sick leave benefits by reason of lack of adequate contributions, she shall receive seventy percent (70%) of her straight time wages for weeks two (2) through sixteen (16) of any legitimate illness or injury.

In a case where an employee has applied for and is waiting to receive E.I. benefits under this clause and payment is delayed, the employee may apply to the Employer for an advance. In such a case, the employee must present the Employer with proof of eligibility for the benefit to the Employer's satisfaction. If approved, the Employer will advance a sum equal to two (2) weeks of E.I. benefits in exchange for a written undertaking to repay the Employer at the earliest possible opportunity.

Note: The top-up scheme is subject to prior approval by the E.I. authorities and failing such approval, the Employer shall not be liable for additional coverage than contemplated by this proposal.

b) Where an employee's scheduled vacation is interrupted due to a serious illness requiring the employee to be an in-patient in a hospital, the period of such hospitalization shall be considered sick leave provided the employee provides satisfactory documentation of illness and the hospitalization. The portion of the employee's vacation if deemed to be sick leave under the above provision will not be counted against the employee's vacation credits.

c) The employees understand that they will provide the most notice possible of absence due to personal illness, particularly for the afternoon or the evening shift.

14.02 Prior to receiving sick pay, an employee may be required to provide the Employer with a doctor's certificate certifying that she is unable to carry out her normal duties due to sickness. Such request shall be based on reasonable grounds.

14.03 a) If the Employer requires a sick leave certificate in accordance with past practice or the Collective Agreement and the doctor charges the employee for such certificate outside OHIP, the Employer will pay for the certificate.

b) In alternative to (a) above, the Employer may require an employee to attend an independent physician other than the employee's own physician to provide a sick leave certificate. In such circumstances, the Employer shall pay for any medical fees charged beyond OHIP and in relation thereto.

14.04 Absence for injury compensable under the provisions of the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act shall not be charged against sick leave credits.

ARTICLE 15 – LEAVES OF ABSENCE

15.01 a) An employee desiring leave of absence of less than seven (7) working days shall make application in writing to her Supervisor as far in advance of the leave as possible. The Employer will respond to such requests in writing in a timely manner, considering the timing of the response.

b) Leave of absence for personal leave reasons for a length of time in excess of seven (7) working days may be granted at the discretion of management, provided that it does not disrupt the efficient running of the Home.

Request for such leave of absence will normally be made in writing four (4) weeks prior to the date of commencement of the leave of absence, unless such notice is not possible. The written request must state the date of departure and the date of return. An employee must notify the Administrator and receive approval for any changes to the expected date of return.

In the event that two (2) or more employees request the same period of time, should management allow only one (1) leave of absence, seniority shall be the deciding factor.

15.02 Bereavement Leave

Upon the death of an employee's spouse, child or stepchild, an employee shall be granted leave up to a maximum of five (5) days without loss of pay, ending with either the day after the funeral or the day after the equivalent service. For the purposes of this clause an employee's spouse will also include a partner of the same sex and a common law spouse, living with the employee in a relationship of some permanence.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #1 VACATION PAY

The Employer will provide employees with the amount of vacation pay that has accrued on their pay stubs. In cases of a difference between the amount of the pay stub and the actual accrual, the latter will govern.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #2 WORKING SHORT

In the most recent round of negotiations the parties had discussions regarding the “working short” issue in the long term care sector.

It was generally recognized by the parties that “working short” is characterized by an area of the nursing home that is working with fewer than the originally scheduled number of employees.

Both parties understand the problems “working short” creates, whether it is operational or the additional work load it can demand from staff. All parties agree to work cooperatively towards ways to address the problem.

All discussions and solutions must be conducted in good faith and on a without prejudice basis. The parties feel that “working short” must be dealt with at both the Provincial level of additional funding and also the local home level. It is agreed the parties at each home may consider solutions which may help to deal with the problem.

Some of these ideas are listed below but are not all considered full comprehensive, and other ideas may be considered:

- 1) Review the staffing complement (FT, PT and Casual staff mix).
- 2) Consider alternative scheduling procedures.
- 3) Review the collective agreement in a good faith attempt to see if there are barriers creating the “working short” issue. If there are any changes to the collective agreement agreed to by the local Workplace Committee they must be approved by the Local and National Union and the Employer corporate representatives.

- 4) Full disclosure on any policies which may create working short.
- 5) Review of reasons for short notice absences.
- 6) Review of call-in and replacement procedures being used at the Home.
- 7) Review of policies/practices for approving time off and schedule changes.
- 8) Review job routines or protocols to use when working short.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #5 – CHRISTMAS /NEW YEARS

The parties have agreed to discuss the Christmas/New Years schedule at the next labour management meeting and in the event the parties are able to reach an agreement, it shall be reduced to a letter of understanding for this year only.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #6 – FILLING AVAILABLE SHIFTS AND CALL INS

1. Team Members will complete and submit their “availability”, ensuring it can be relied upon. In the event a team member doesn’t provide any availability, they will not be scheduled or called upon for shifts above and beyond their job posting.
2. Prior to posting the schedule, the Employer will back-fill shifts it has determined to fill with employees, strictly on the basis of seniority, stated availability, and who possess the normal qualifications for the work to be done. The most senior of these employees with less than seventy five (75) will get the most hours.
3. Team Members will be required to check the posted schedule and work the shifts they had indicated they were available to work. Only unscheduled part time employees will be contacted by the Employer. In the event a team member fails to show, they will be deemed absent without leave and may be subject to disciplinary action.
4. In the event the schedule has been posted, shifts the Employer has determined to fill will be distributed by seniority on a rotational basis pursuant to article 11.16 of the Collective Agreement. The Employer will only call employees on the basis of their stated availability.

5. Vacation and lieu time will be provided first to the shadow, subject to availability, prior to being awarded by using the process contemplated by paragraph 2, above.
6. The parties will meet implement the above process as soon as practically possible, but not later than January 1, unless otherwise discussed by the parties.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #7 – JOB SHARING

1. Job sharing, for the purpose of this Agreement, shall be defined as the sharing of the hours and the responsibilities of a full-time position. Where this is approved, it is agreed that his/her half of the position will not be posted; however, the other half of the job shared position must be posted and the selection based on the criteria set out in the Collective Agreement. Once a full-time employee has indicated their desire to job share, the part-time component of that arrangement shall be determined subsequent to a posting as per the Collective Agreement.
2. Job sharers shall be considered part-time employees and shall be subject to the applicable provisions of the Collective Agreement, unless otherwise amended by this Article.

4. The job sharers shall work on scheduled paid holidays subject to the conditions of the Collective Agreement, and whether the day is part of a job sharers regular assignment.
5. Job Sharers will be expected, on a reasonable basis, to cover leaves of absence including sick leave of their partner, up to full-time hours. If the partner is unable to cover the entire leave, he/she must inform his/her Manager or designate. Those shifts which the partner is unable to cover, the Employer will provide the necessary coverage.

6. In the event the former full-time employee leaves the current position, the position shall be posted as a full-time position and the part-time employee reverts to a part-time position.
7. In the event the part-time employee leaves the position, the former full-time partner has the option of reverting to full-time or remaining as a job sharer. If they choose job sharing, the part-time component of the job share position shall be posted as per the Collective Agreement.

Discontinuation

1. It is understood and agreed that a full-time employee may discontinue the job sharing arrangement with eight (8) weeks written notice to the Manager or designate and revert to his/her full-time position. Such job sharer's partner shall consequently, revert to a part-time position.
2. Any transfers or changes of status of an employee resulting from a job sharing arrangement reverting to a full-time position shall not constitute a layoff under the terms of the Collective Agreement.
3. The agreement to job share will remain between both employees so long as they are compatible, and the needs of the unit/department are met. If either of these two criteria are not met, there will be consultation between the job sharers, Manager or designate and Union to attempt to resolve the issue or dissolve the partnership.
4. In the event of a layoff, it is agreed that job sharers from the full-time will be listed on the fulltime seniority list and likewise, the part-time on the part-time seniority list.
5. The Employer shall have the option of canceling this Agreement after providing the other party with thirty (30) days written notice. The job sharers shall have the option of reverting back to their former positions should the arrangement be cancelled.

Such lieu days must be taken within sixty (60) days of the holiday.
4. When an employee takes a banked lieu day, the amount of holiday pay to be paid will be in proportion to the number of lieu days which are banked at the time. For clarity, if an employee has 5 lieu days banked and $500 of holiday pay banked, when the employee takes a banked holiday the amount of the holiday will be $100.
5. When an employee wishes to take a lieu day, a written request must be submitted to the employee's supervisor in accordance with article 11.09 of the Collective Agreement. The Employer shall have the right to grant or deny lieu days subject to the requirements of the above-named article. The employer will not unreasonably deny a request made under this process.
6. Despite paragraph 5, a lieu day will not be granted if to do so would prevent another employee, regardless of seniority, from access to vacation leave where an application for that leave was made as part of annual process for requesting vacation.
7. Where an employee does not schedule all lieu days earned in a year prior to December 1st, then the holiday pay which remains banked will be paid in its entirety in a special pay run no later than December 15th of each year.
