ARTICLE 3 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 3:01 The Union recognizes that, subject to the express provisions of this Agreement, all management rights are vested exclusively with the Employer and that without limiting the generality of the foregoing it is the exclusive function of the Employer:

 - (b) to maintain order, discipline, efficiency and in connection therewith to establish and enforce reasonable rules and regulations, which will not be inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement. The Employer will notify the Union Committee of any alterations of the present rules or regulations or of new rules and regulations prior to their implementation;

Regular wages for all time spent to attend negotiations for the successor of this agreement up to and including conciliation proceedings will be paid by the Employer for the four (4) members of the Union Negotiating Committee. The Union recognizes the scheduling problems of the Employer; sufficient lead time will be allowed so that work schedules may be properly adjusted. The normal work schedule and all related clauses in this Agreement will be suspended during the period of negotiations should there be a need for emergency meetings. The Employer will recognize and work with the Committeepersons and the Committeepersons will co-operate with the Employer in the administration of this Agreement. A Committeeperson will be given reasonable time off, without loss of wages, to assist an employee in the presentation of a grievance whenever it is necessary to deal with the grievance during working hours beginning with Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure. The Committeeperson must first obtain permission from the Administrator or his/her designate and shall report to his/her supervisor at the time of the Committeeperson's return to work. The Committeeperson shall not leave the Employer's premises. The Committeeperson shall not make unreasonable requests and permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.

6:06 Labour-Management Committee

- (a) There shall be a Labour-Management Committee consisting of two (2) employees, one from the Service Unit and one from the Nursing Unit, appointed or elected by the Union and two (2) Employer representatives.

6:07 New Employee Orientation

Reasonable time (fifteen (15) minutes) will be made available during working hours after four (4) weeks of employment by a new employee for a chairperson to acquaint each such employee with the benefits of union membership and the rights and obligations arising out of this Agreement. The Employer shall send to the Union office each month a list of names, addresses and classifications of all new employees.

ARTICLE 7 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

7:01 The parties agree that grievances shall be adjusted as quickly as possible. It is understood that an employee has no grievance until the employee has given their supervisor an opportunity to adjust their complaint. The supervisor shall have two (2) days to reply to the complaint, if the reply is unsatisfactory or if the supervisor fails to reply within the two (2) days the employee may proceed with the steps of the grievance procedure. Any grievance or dispute relating to the interpretation, application or alleged violation of this Agreement, or relating to any terms or conditions of employment shall be dealt with in the following manner:

Step 1

An employee having a complaint or grievance shall refer it to her immediate Supervisor in writing within five (5) working days of the actual occurrence giving rise to the complaint or grievance. The grievance will clearly state the name(s) of the grievor(s), the article(s) violated, if any, and the corrective action requested. The Supervisor shall reply to the employee, giving the answer to the complaint or grievance in writing within five (5) working days from the date it was submitted.

Step 2

If further action is then to be taken, then within five (5) working days after the decision is given in Step 1, the employee, who may request the assistance of her Committeeperson, shall submit the grievance in writing to the Administrator. A meeting will then be held between the Administrator or her designated representative and the employee within five (5) working days. It is understood that at such a meeting the Administrator or her designated representative may have such counsel and assistance as she may desire and that the employee may have her Committeeperson, and the Chairperson or a Union Representative of the Union may also be present at the request of either the employee or the Employer. The decision of the Administrator or her designated representative shall be given in writing within five (5) working days following the meeting.

Step 3

Should the Administrator fail to render her decision as required in Step 2 or failing settlement of any grievance under the foregoing procedures, the grievance may be referred to arbitration by either the Employer or the Union. If no written request for arbitration is received in accordance with Section 8:01 within five (5) working days after the decision under Step 2 is given or within ten (10) working days following the meeting under Step 2 of the grievance procedure, the grievance shall be deemed to have been settled and the same grievance shall not be the subject matter of a further grievance.

- 7:02 Should two or more employees have a grievance of a similar nature, then it may be processed as one grievance at Step 1 of the grievance procedure and throughout the grievance procedure.
- 7:03 For the purpose of the grievance and arbitration procedure, working days shall exclude Saturdays, Sundays and paid holidays.
- 7:04 Any of the time limits in the grievance and arbitration procedure may be extended by the written consent of the parties.
- 7:05 When a grievance is submitted in writing by either the Employer, the Union or an employee it shall clearly set forth the nature of the grievance, the article(s) violated if any and the remedies sought.

ARTICLE 8 - ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

- 8:01 If the employer's decision following the Step 2 meeting of the Grievance Procedure is not satisfactory to the Union, such grievance may be submitted to arbitration provided written notice of appeal to arbitration is served on the Employer within twenty (20) working days of the delivery of the Employer's decision.
- 8:02 The parties agree that a single arbitrator shall be relied upon to resolve disputes under this Collective Agreement. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties. The cost of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the Employer and the Union.
- 8:03 The arbitrator shall not have the jurisdiction to alter or change any of the provisions of this Agreement, nor to substitute any new provision in lieu thereof, nor to give any decision inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Agreement, nor to deal with any matter not covered by this Agreement. The arbitrator, however, in respect of a grievance involving a penalty shall be entitled to modify such penalty.
- 8:04 All reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the conferring parties to have access to the facility to view any disputed operations involved in the grievance. Time limits fixed in the grievance and arbitrator procedures may be extended by mutual consent of the parties.
- 8:05 The Board of Arbitration shall have no power to alter, add to, subtract from, modify or amend this Agreement. The Board of Arbitration may dispose of a grievance in any manner which it deems just and equitable consistent with the provisions of this Agreement. The decision of the majority of the members of the Board of Arbitration shall be the decision of the Board, but if there is no majority the decision of the Chairperson shall govern.
- 8:06 The proceedings of the Arbitration Board will be expedited by the parties hereto and the decision of the Board will be final and binding upon the parties hereto and the employee concerned.
- 8:07 Each of the parties hereto shall pay its own expenses including pay for witnesses and the expense of its own Arbitrator and one half (2) of the expenses and fees of the Chairperson

- 8:08 At any stage of the Grievance/Arbitration Procedure, the parties may have the assistance of the employee or employees concerned. All reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the conferring parties or the Board of Arbitration to have access to any part of the Retirement Residence to view any working conditions which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance at a reasonable time and so as not to interfere with the normal function of the Retirement Residence.
- 8:09 The foregoing arbitration procedures shall not preclude either party to this Agreement from exercising their right under Section 49 of the present Ontario Labour Relations Act as amended from time to time.
- 8:10 The foregoing arbitration procedures shall not preclude the Employer and the Union from agreeing to have a single arbitrator preside as an arbitration board.

ARTICLE 9 - POLICY GRIEVANCE

9:01 Group and Policy Grievance

The grievance procedure outlined in this Article shall apply equally to a grievance lodged by a group of employees, or to a Union policy grievance with the following amendments. Any allegation by a group of employees concerning a similar matter(s) alleging a violation or misinterpretation of this Agreement may be lodged in writing as a group grievance to the employer. The group grievance shall be dealt with at Step 2 of the grievance procedure and failing satisfactory settlement at the conference, the group grievance may then be appealed to arbitration as herein provided.

9:02 Any allegations by either the Union or the Employer that the other party has violated or misinterpreted this Agreement, may be lodged in writing as a policy grievance at Step 2, if by the Union to the Employer and, if by the Employer to the Chairperson of the Union Committee. Thereafter the policy grievance shall be dealt with at Step 2 of the grievance procedure and failing satisfactory settlement at the meeting, the policy grievance may then be appealed to arbitration as herein provided.

9:03 Any notice under the Grievance or Arbitration Procedure of this Agreement may be given personally or by prepaid registered post, or by fax machine. Any such notice shall be deemed given when delivered to the postal authorities and when faxed to either party to this agreement.

ARTICLE 10 - DISCHARGE, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

10:01 A claim by an employee who has completed probation that he or she has been unjustly discharged shall be treated as a grievance if a written statement of such discharge is lodged by the employee with the Administrator or designate within five (5) days after the employee has received his/her discharge notice. Such grievance will be taken up by the Union at a special meeting with the Administrator.

10:02 It is agreed that the Chairperson of the Union Committee will be notified immediately on the dismissal of an employee in the bargaining unit. Should the Chairperson not be available at the time, a copy of the letter or notice shall be given to a Committeeperson who is available.

10:03 In the event the Employer initiates a disciplinary action against an employee that results in the suspension or discharge of the employee, the following procedure shall be followed:

- (a) The employee shall be notified in writing, of the action and/or penalty with a copy given to the Chairperson, if the penalty is a suspension. If the penalty is discharge then only the Union (President or his/her designate) need be notified in addition to the employee.
- (b) In the event the Employer is dissatisfied with the work of an employee and correction discussion has not resolved the problem, the Employer shall notify the employee in writing of the dissatisfaction concerning his/her work within five (5) working days when becoming aware of the incident giving rise to the complaint. This notice shall include particulars of the work performance which led to the complaint.

- (c) The letter or form given to the employee shall state the complaint or appraisal of results and contain on the bottom thereof a statement to the effect that the employee acknowledges having read the letter or form acknowledging receipt of a copy of the same, and a place for the employee to sign. The employee shall sign the letter or form and a copy shall be given to her. Prior to signing, the employee shall have the opportunity to write her comments.
- (d) The employee has the right to Union Representation in any proceedings under (a), (b) or (c) above.

10:04 Such grievance shall proceed directly to Step 2 of the grievance procedure and must be presented in writing, dated, and signed within five (5) working days after notice of the discharge was given.

10:05 Only those disciplinary notices that result in a suspension will remain on an employees personnel file for a period of fifteen (15) months. All other disciplinary notices, warnings or statements will be removed and given to the employee after a period of twelve (12) months from the date of the infraction.

10:06 An employee shall, upon written request, be granted the opportunity to view his/her personnel file. It is understood that such request will be granted within seven (7) days or at a time mutually agreed to by the parties. The employee may have a Committeeperson present while viewing their file, if requested.

10:07 The Union Chairperson or a Committeeperson will be present during all warnings, or counselling sessions regarding disciplinary actions of a seniority employee. When an employee is called to an interview and the subject of the interview is discipline, the employee will be so informed by the Employer's representative when given notice of the interview, and will be advised to have her Union representative present. The interview will not begin or proceed without Union representation. A copy of any warning to be placed in an employee's file must be copied to the Union Chairperson.

Discipline is defined as a written warning, reprimand, suspension, dismissal or other disciplinary action to an employee.

ARTICLE 11 - PROBATION - SENIORITY

11:01(a) Seniority Defined

Seniority is defined as the length of service in the bargaining unit from the date of last hiring. For purposes of clarity, the seniority of employees shall be computed on the basis of years of service subsequent to date of most recent hire.

(b) Probation Defined

The probationary period has been completed when an employee has served four hundred, fifty (450) hours or six (6) months, whichever comes first. Employees will be regarded as probationary employees until they have acquired seniority as above, provided however that an employee shall be entitled to the assistance of the Union in settling a grievance.

11:02 Seniority lists containing the names of all employees and their respective dates of hiring will be posted on the Union Bulletin Board and will be revised every six (6) months. It is agreed that the Chairperson will be advised monthly as to new employees who have commenced employment such notice shall include their classification and hiring date.

- 11:03 Seniority lists of all employees shall show the last date of hiring of each employee by the Employer.
- 11:04 Employees shall have the right to challenge the listing for a period of six (6) weeks following the initial posting and for a period of four (4) weeks following each subsequent posting. The seniority list as corrected shall be deemed accurate to the date of posting. Any challenge to the employee's seniority which is not dealt with to the employee's satisfaction may be submitted as a grievance. Employees must have some basis for the challenge such as a copy of all check stubs which show hours. The challenge must be specific regarding the pay periods in question.
- 11:05 The Employer will supply the Chairperson with a copy of the seniority list as well as forwarding a copy to the Local Union Office.
- 11:06 When an employee transfers from part time to full time employment and vice-versa, her seniority shall carry forth to the new position.
- 11:07 Loss of Seniority
An employee shall lose all seniority and her employment shall be deemed to be terminated if she:
- (a) resigns, retires, quits, or is discharged and is not reinstated pursuant to the grievance procedure;
 - (b) is absent for two (2) working days without sufficient cause;
 - (c) overstays a leave of absence; vacation; or suspension; or remains away from work without permission for a period of more than two (2) consecutive working days for which she is scheduled to work, without a justifiable reason for such absence; or
 - (d) is laid off from work for a period of time equal to their accumulated seniority at date of layoff or for a period of thirty-six (36) months, whichever is greater, or
 - (e) is transferred to a position outside of the bargaining unit, unless otherwise mutually agreed by the parties.
- 11:08 Credits or service for the purpose of salary increments, vacations, or any other benefit included and prescribed under the Employment Standards Act shall continue and seniority shall accumulate when an employee is absent from work on accident, or illness not compensable by WSIB for up to thirty (30) months, after which time seniority only shall continue to accumulate.

NOTE: This clause shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with the Ontario Human Rights Code.

- 11:09 Seniority shall be retained and accumulated when an employee is absent from work under the following circumstances:
- (a) approved leave(s) of absence without pay for up to twenty (20) regularly scheduled shifts in a calendar year.
 - (b) when absent on account of accident or illness compensable by WSIB. This clause shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with the Ontario Human Rights Code.

ARTICLE 12 – LAYOFF & RECALL

- 12:01 (a)(1) Layoffs are to be by seniority.

(2) In the event of a layoff, the Employer shall identify the position(s) affected by the layoff.

(3) The incumbent of the identified position shall have the option of:

(i) bumping a less senior employee in the same or other classification; or

(ii) accepting the layoff;

within three (3) calendar days of the receipt of layoff.

(b) Any employee displaced as a result of the procedure set out above shall themselves be permitted to utilize this procedure.

(i) All recalls shall be by seniority subject to section 12:01 (d).

(ii) Prior to recalling any laid off employee, the Employer agrees to implement Article 14:01 of the collective agreement. After exhausting the posting procedure pursuant to article 14:01 the laid off employee shall then be recalled to the remaining vacancy.

(c) No new employees shall be hired until laid off employees, who retain seniority and are eligible for recall as prescribed by this section, have been given an opportunity to return to work.

(d) In all cases, the employee seeking to displace or the recalled employee(s) must have the ability to perform the available position. Employees exercising displacement and/or recall rights shall be deemed not to have been transferred pursuant to article 14:01.

(e) The Employer agrees to make every effort not to split a full time position into two part time positions for the purpose of reducing the full time unit.

12:02 Unless legislation is more favourable to the employees, the Employer shall notify employees who are to be laid off two (2) calendar weeks prior to the effective date of layoff except in the event of an emergency beyond the control of the Employer. If the employee has not been given the opportunity to work the days scheduled for the two (2) week period, he/she shall be paid for those days.

12:03 Grievances concerning layoffs and recalls shall be initiated at Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 13 - HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

13:01(a)The following is intended to define the normal hours of work of the full time employees but shall not be interpreted as a guarantee of hours of work per day, or per week, or days of work per week.

(b) The normal work shift for full time employees working nights shall be eight working hours per day inclusive of meal period. The Employer will use its best efforts to ensure that an uninterrupted lunch break is provided.

(c) The normal hours of full time employment shall average up to thirty-seven and one-half (37-1/2) per week and up to seventy-five (75) bi-weekly over two (2) week pay period. This may mean that an employee would work more or less than up to thirty-seven and one half (37-1/2) hours in a weekly period; but over the pay period, the average number of hours will be up to seventy-five (75). The provisions of this Agreement relating to payment of overtime rates shall be interpreted on the understanding that the bi-weekly hours are averaged.

Under normal circumstances, bi-weekly wages shall be paid via direct deposit to the employee's bank account with the Employer by Thursday. Corresponding pay stubs shall be provided as soon as practicable during business hours on the Wednesday of the week wages are paid.

(d) No Split Shifts

While it is recognized that day, evening and night shifts must be continued, the Employer agrees that no employee shall be required to work a split shift, provided the employee was not hired to perform split shift work, or as mutually agreed upon.

- (e) Full time employees that request schedules of less than ten (10) shifts per two (2) week period shall be locked into those schedules for six (6) month periods. Such requests will be considered twice each year and must be submitted in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of the six (6) month period. If an employee wishes to revert to their ten (10) shifts per two (2) weeks (or alter their requested schedule), they must notify the employer in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of the six (6) month period. For purposes of this Article, the six (6) month periods referred to herein shall commence May 1st and November 1st respectively each year.

13:02(a) Overtime shall be paid for all hours worked over seven and one-half (7-1/2) hours in a day and over seventy-five (75) hours in a bi-weekly pay period at the rate of time and one-half the employee's regular rate of pay. All overtime must be authorized by the Administrator or designate. Overtime will be offered in order of seniority within the department and then by seniority regardless of department.

(b) In the event employees of their own accord for their own personal convenience arrange to change shifts with other appropriately qualified employees, the Employer agrees to allow employees to do so, provided the employees have obtained their respective supervisor's written approval. Employees shall fill out the appropriate form. The Employer shall not be responsible or liable for overtime and non-compliance with the above scheduling provisions that may arise or accrue as a result of the exchange of shifts.

(c) Time less than fifteen (15) minutes per day to finish an assigned task on an irregular basis shall not be counted as overtime.

(d) If an employee works three (3) hours or more of overtime after her regularly scheduled shift she will be entitled to nourishment provided by the Retirement Residence.

13:03 Employees will be allowed one fifteen (15) minute break (i.e. absence from the work station) for each shift of five (5) hours duration or less and two (2) fifteen minute breaks for each shift more than five (5) hours in duration at times designated by the Employer, with pay and without increasing the regular working hours. The employer shall not schedule an unpaid lunch break for any shift five (5) hours or less, unless mutually agreed with the affected employee.

13:04 Work Schedules

(a) Work schedules covering at least a two (2) week period will be posted at least one (1) week in advance. Such posted schedules shall not be changed unless by mutual agreement between the Employer and employees so affected, or so as to allow the mutual exchanging of shifts between employees as per Section 13:02 (b) or if an emergency exists. Employee requests for specific days off must be submitted to the Administrator three (3) weeks in advance of the schedule start. The granting or denial of such request shall be finally determined by the Administrator having due concern for the proper operation of the Retirement Residence and will not be unreasonably denied. Union Stewards will be allowed to make their own copy of the schedule and provide to Union.

(b) Except when mutually agreed otherwise between the Employer and an employee, shift schedules shall be arranged so that an employee is not regularly scheduled to work more than seven (7) consecutive days.

13:05 Employees shall be scheduled so as to have one (1) weekend in two (2) off (except in events beyond the control of the Employer) unless the employee has been hired to work weekends or the employee agrees to work weekends. The term weekend shall mean Saturday and Sunday.

13:06 Reporting Allowance

When an employee reports for work at his/her assigned starting time without being notified four (4) hours in advance by the facility not to report for work at said time, then the employee will work four (4) hours and must report to the Administrator or supervisor for work instruction or shall receive pay in lieu of work, for four (4) hours during the day if no work is available.

Two (2) representatives from the Joint Health and Safety Committee, one (1) from management and one (1) elected from the employees, shall make monthly inspection of the workplace and equipment and shall report to the health and safety committee the results of their inspections. In the event of accident or injury, such representatives shall be notified, and if available, shall assist in investigating and report as soon as possible to the committee and to the Employer on the nature and causes of the accident or injury. Furthermore, such representatives must be notified of the inspection of a Ministry of Labour inspector and shall have the right, if on shift, to accompany him on his inspections. Scheduled times spent in all such activities shall be considered as time worked.

Employees who are not direct care employees will be made aware of special procedures required of them to deal with these circumstances. The parties agree that all employees are aware of the requirement to practice universal precautions in all circumstances.

ARTICLE 23 – JOB SECURITY / NO CONTRACTING OUT

23:01 The employer shall not contract out any work usually performed by members of this bargaining unit if, as a result of such contracting out, a layoff of any employees other than casual part-time employees follows.

ARTICLE 24 – TRANSFERS / CALL-IN

24:01 Transfers

When an employee transfers or is transferred from one department or classification to another department or classification, whether the wage rate is equal to or higher, she or he shall be paid at such rate set out in the wage schedule for such department or classification so that the employee will not be earning less money than prior to the transfer. If the wage rate is less than the wage rate of the transferred employee she/he shall receive the corresponding rate vertically in the new classification.

24:02 When an employee who is transferred to a higher category has recent past experience with the Employer which is relevant to the higher category, the Employer shall give the employee credit for all such experience up to the maximum for the higher rated job.

24:03 For purpose of call-ins the order of priority shall be:

- (1) part time employees by seniority in their department;
- (2) part time employees by seniority from all other departments;
- (3) full time employees by seniority in their department;
- (4) full time employees by seniority from all other departments.

24:04 Any employee who is called into work as a replacement for an absent employee after that absent employee's shift has started and who completes six (6) or more hours will be paid for the full shift at the applicable rate.

24:05 Reporting Pay

Employees who report to work for any shift without being notified to the contrary will be guaranteed at least four (4) hours of work or if no work is available will be paid for at least four (4) hours at the applicable rate.

24:06 Call Back

An employee called back to work after leaving the premises who reports to work outside her normal, scheduled hours of work will receive, no matter what period of time is actually worked, no less than the equivalent of four (4) hours pay at time and one-half her/his regular, straight time hourly rate. For purpose of clarity, this paragraph shall not apply to employees who are scheduled to work overtime by reporting to work before the commencement of their normal shift only if seven and one half (7-1/2) hours worked previously.

24:07 In lieu of call back pay, an employee may take equivalent time off with pay at a mutually agreeable time within forty-five (45) days following the call back or such longer period as may be agreed upon.

ARTICLE 25 - RESPONSIBILITY PAY

25:01 An employee assigned by management to be responsible for the facility in the absence of management shall receive one dollar ($1.00) per hour in addition to their regular hourly rate for all hours so assigned effective ratification. This shall be limited to one (1) individual per shift.

ARTICLE 26 - INTERPRETATION

26:01 Where the feminine pronoun is used in this Agreement, it shall mean and include the masculine pronoun where the context so applies. Where the singular is used it may also be deemed to mean the plural within the appropriate context.

26:02 The word "employee" or "employees" as used in this Agreement shall mean the employees referred to in Article 2 of this Agreement which employees are within the bargaining unit and for whom the Union is recognized as the bargaining agent.

- 26:03 Part time employees are hereby defined to be those persons regularly employed on the average twenty-four (24) hours or less per week and who have completed the probationary period excluding holidays, days off, scheduled days not worked, and days off on leave of absence.
- 26:04 The shift commencing at or about midnight shall be considered the first shift of each working day. A shift shall be deemed to be entirely within the calendar day in which the majority of hours worked falls, regardless of what calendar day any part of such shift was actually worked.
- 26:05 The terms "regular pay" and "straight time pay" when used in this Agreement, shall mean the amounts indicated in the wage classification as hourly earnings only and shall not include any amounts other than those hourly earnings. For greater certainty it is agreed and understood that there shall not be included in any hourly or other rate on which a multiple of time and one half (1-1/2) or any other multiple is applied for purposes of computing overtime worked, work performed on a paid holiday, vacation or otherwise, or any premium which is to be paid in accordance with this Agreement.

ARTICLE 27 - WAGES & CLASSIFICATIONS

Retroactivity

Retroactive payment to be paid within forty-five (45) days of ratification.

27:01 Shift Premium

All employees who are required by the Employer to rotate over two (2) or more shifts, shall receive a shift premium of twenty-five cents (25¢) for each hour worked on a shift commencing after 1500 hours or before 0530 hours. Shift premiums will not be paid for any hour in which an employee receives overtime payments. Shift premiums will not form part of the employee's straight time hourly rate.

Weekend Premium

An employee shall receive a weekend premium of thirty cents ($0.30) for each hour worked commencing on or about 2300 hours Friday, and the end of the shift ending on or about 2300 hours Sunday. Such premium shall not form part of the employee's straight time hourly rate and will not be paid for any hour wherein overtime is paid. Effective July 6, 2024, the weekend premium will increase to thirty-five cents ($0.35).

- 27:02 Where, as a result of the Employer's error, an employee receives a regular pay that is less than the amount to which they would otherwise be entitled, and where the amount in error equals or exceeds the equivalent of seven and one-half (7-1/2) hours of pay, the Employer will supply a cheque no later than four (4) business days after the amount has been brought to the Employer's attention. If the amount is less than seven and one-half (7-1/2) hours of pay, the correction shall be made on the next regular pay date. For purposes of clarification, this Article shall not apply to circumstances wherein the Employer has had to estimate payroll (i.e. weeks wherein there is a holiday).

ARTICLE 28 – WORKPLACE SAFETY AND INSURANCE BOARD

- 28:01 The Employer agrees to supply the Union with a copy of the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board's Form 7 (Employer's Report of Accidental Injury or Industrial Disease) at the same time that it is sent to the Board, (within seventy-two (72) hours after the Report of the injury). The Union shall be given opportunity to meet with the Employer to discuss and amend any errors or omissions found in the Form 7.

30:01 The employer agrees to pay into a special fund one hundred, seventy-five dollars ($175.00) on November 1st in each year of the collective agreement for the purpose of providing paid education leave. Such leave will be for upgrading the employee's skills in all aspects of trade union functions. Such monies to be paid into a trust fund established by Unifor National Office, and sent by the employer to the following address: Unifor Paid Education Leave Program, 115 Gordon Baker Road, Toronto ON M2H 0A8

The employer further agrees that members of the bargaining unit selected by the Union to attend such courses will be granted a leave of absence without pay for twenty (20) days class time, plus travel time where necessary. Employees on such leave of absence will continue to accrue seniority and benefits during such leave. The parties agree that such leave shall be limited to one (1) person at any given time unless mutually agreed to by the parties.

ARTICLE 31 - NO DISCRIMINATION / HARASSMENT

31:01 The Employer and the Union agree that pursuant to the Ontario Human Rights Code, there shall be no discrimination, interference, restraint, harassment or coercion exercised or practiced by either of them or by any of their representatives, with respect to any employee by reason of age, marital status, sex, race, creed, colour, national origin, political or religious affiliations, disability, sexual orientation save and except those limitations set out in the Legislation.

31:02 No Discrimination

In accordance with the provisions of the Labour Relations Act of Ontario the parties will not discriminate because any employee was or is a member of the Union or was or is exercising any rights under this statute or under this Agreement nor will there be any discrimination based on any other factor not pertinent to the employment relationship save and except these limitations as set out in the applicable legislation.

Where the term spouse or partner is used in this Agreement, it shall mean a person to whom the employee is married or with whom the employee is living in a conjugal relationship outside marriage, including a person of the same or opposite sex.

Workplace Harassment

The employer and the Unifor are committed to providing a harassment-free workplace. Harassment is defined as a course of vexatious comment or conduct that is known or ought reasonably be known to be unwelcome, that denies individual dignity and respect on the basis of the grounds such as gender, disability, race, colour, sexual orientation or other prohibited grounds, as stated in the Ontario Human Rights Code. All employees are expected to treat others with courtesy and consideration and to discourage harassment.

Harassment may take many forms: verbal, physical or visual. It may involve a threat or an implied threat or be perceived as a condition of employment. The following examples could be considered as harassment but are not meant to cover all potential incidents:

- Unwelcome remarks, jokes, innuendos, gestures or taunting about a person's body, disability, attire or gender, racial or ethnic backgrounds, colour, place of birth, sexual orientation, citizenship or ancestry;
- Practical jokes, pushing, shoving, etc., which causes awkwardness or embarrassment;
- Posting or circulation of offensive photos or visual materials;
- Refusal to work or converse with an employee because of their racial background or gender, etc.,
- Unwanted physical conduct such as touching, patting, pinching, etc.;
- Backlash or retaliation for the lodging of a complaint with the Employer or the Union, or participation in an investigation.

Harassment is in no way to be construed as properly discharged supervisory responsibilities, including the delegation of work assignments, the assessment of discipline or any conduct that does not undermine the dignity of the individual. Neither is this policy meant to inhibit free speech nor interfere with normal social relations.

Filing a Complaint

If an employee believes she has been harassed and/or discriminated against on the basis of any prohibited ground of discrimination, there are specific actions that may be taken to put a stop to it:

- Request a stop of unwanted behaviour;
- Inform the individual(s) that is harassing or discriminating against you that the behaviour is unwanted and unwelcome;
- Document the events, complete with times, dates, location, witnesses and details;
- Report the incident to the Supervisor/Committee person or other Union representative.

However, it is also understood that some victims of discrimination or harassment are reluctant to confront their harasser. In this event, the victim may seek assistance by reporting the incident directly to any Union representative or representative of management.

Investigation

Upon receipt of the complaint, the Supervisor or Union Committee person or representative contacted will immediately inform the Administrator and the Union Chairperson, who will then interview the employee and advise the employee if the complaint can be resolved immediately or if the complaint should be formalized in writing.

A formal investigation of the complaint will then begin by the Administrator and the Union Chairperson, interviewing the alleged harasser, witnesses and other persons named in the complaint. Any related documents may also be reviewed.

Resolution

The Administrator and the Union Chairperson will try to mutually agree on an appropriate resolution, in an attempt to resolve within ten (10) days and ensure the resolution is fair and consistent with the intent of the Employer and Unifor National policy regarding discrimination and harassment in the workplace.

At the conclusion of this step, the complaint, if unresolved, will be inserted into Step 2 of the grievance procedure for resolution. In the event that the complaint is not resolved by the parties at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, it may be appealed to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the collective agreement. The parties agree that this procedure is an alternative complaint procedure and as such, complaints should not be pursued through both the grievance procedure and the Human Rights complaint procedure.

ARTICLE 32 – VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

32:01 The parties hereby recognize and share the concern that women may face situations of violence or abuse in their personal lives that may affect their attendance or performance at work. The parties agree that when there is adequate written verification if requested by the employer from a recognized professional (i.e., doctor, lawyer, professional counsellor), a woman who is in an abusive or violent personal or domestic situation will not be subjected to discipline without giving full consideration to the facts in the case of each individual and the circumstances surrounding the incident otherwise supportive of discipline. This statement of intent is subject to a standard of good faith on the part of the Employer, the Union and the affected employees and will not be utilized by the Union or the employees to subvert the application of otherwise appropriate disciplinary measures.

ARTICLE 33 - DURATION

33:01 This Agreement shall become effective January 14, 2022 to expire January 13, 2025.

33:02 Notice

Notice of intent to amend this Agreement shall be given by either party to the other in writing ninety (90) days prior to the expiry date and negotiations with respect thereto shall begin within fifteen (15) days after filing notice to bargain for a new or amended Collective Agreement.

33:03 Extension

If pursuant to such negotiations an agreement on the renewal or amendment of this Agreement is not reached prior to the expiration date of this Agreement it shall be automatically extended until the conclusion of negotiations.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #18 – RE: MENTAL HEALTH AND COMPASSION FATIGUE IN THE WORKPLACE

The parties both agree that a psychological healthy work environment is a desirable objective for both the Employer and its employees. The Union acknowledges that it can play a role in reaching this objective.

The parties further acknowledge that one challenge is identifying psycho-social hazards in the workplace that may cause or contribute to mental health conditions, and looking for ways to eliminate them or reduce these effects. The parties must be committed to a greater awareness of mental health issues needed to break down barriers for those suffering.

It is important to raise awareness in the workplace around mental health issues and ensure managers and employees learn how to recognize a potential mental health issue and how to address the issue appropriately and professionally. It is also important for the parties to work together to help employees dealing with mental health issues such as stress, anxiety, depression, or compassion fatigue to address those issues within the professional workplace setting.

Raising awareness and knowledge are seen as key steps towards ending the stigmas associated with suffering from a mental illness and creating a safe and comfortable workplace environment for everyone.

The parties further agree to review this topic at labour management meetings as requested by either party. The discussion shall include, but not be limited to, such topics as the Region's Employee and Family Assistance Plan, the use of external consultants and internal resources to address this issue (both those available to the union and the employer), the use of spiritual counsellors (such as Chaplains), the Region's Wellness Program, etc. The aim of any discussion is intended to (but not necessarily limited to) review matters related to compassion fatigue in the workplace, scheduling practices, return to work issues, and staffing levels.

Understanding the above the parties agree to work together during the life of the agreement in the hopes of engaging managers and employees on mental health and their effect on the workplace.
